MATH 3P82   Assignment 7
Due: October 31

Using the data provided, perform backward elimination of nonsignificant regression variables (using the usual 5% significance level), until the final model is reached.

Then, construct a 90% confidence interval for each of the remaining regression coefficients, and for σ.